

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Depth Psychology and Mystical Phenomena—The Challenge of the Numinous	1
	Thomas Cattoi and David M. Odorisio
 Part I Methodological, Hermeneutic, &amp; Inter-disciplinary Perspectives
2	Rescuing Alexandria: Depth Psychology and the Return of Tropological Exegesis	19
	Thomas Cattoi
3	Dionysus in Depth: Mystes, Madness, and Method in James Hillman’s Re-visioning of Psychology	37
	David M. Odorisio
4	The Royal Road Meets the Data Highway	49
	Kelly Bulkeley
5	Spirituality and the Challenge of Clinical Pluralism: Participatory Thinking in Psychotherapeutic Context	65
	Robin S. Brown

- 6 Descriptive Disenchantment and Prescriptive Disillusionment: Myths, Mysticism, and Psychotherapeutic Interpretation 81
Ira Helderman

Part II Historical & Theoretical Approaches

- 7 Embodying Nonduality: Depth Psychology in American Mysticism 107
Ann Gleig
- 8 Mysticism in Translation: Psychological Advances, Cautionary Tales 127
William B. Parsons
- 9 Sigmund Freud and Jewish Mysticism: An Exploration 151
Christine Downing
- 10 Jung and Mysticism 167
Lionel Corbett
- 11 Mystic Descent: James Hillman and the Religious Imagination 183
Glen Slater

Part III Self and No-Self, Knowing and Unknowing in Depth Psychology & Mysticism

- 12 Apophysis and Psychoanalysis 199
David Henderson
- 13 Divine Darkness and Divine Light: Alchemical Illumination and the Mystical Play Between Knowing and Unknowing 213
Stanton Marlan

14	Nothing Almost Sees Miracles! Self and No-Self in Depth Psychology and Mystical Theology	237
	David L. Miller
15	“In Killing You Changed Death to Life”: Transformation of the Self in St. John of the Cross and Carl Jung	253
	June McDaniel
16	The Buddhist Unconscious (Alaya-vijnana) and Jung’s Collective Unconscious: What Does It Mean to Be Liberated from the Self?	269
	Polly Young-Eisendrath
	Index	283